

Immigration Resources

Provided by Central Plains
Outreach & Service Committee 2009-2010

Immigration is a complex issue which Christians need to examine from a biblical perspective.

This set of items is available for Central Plains churches to use as they study the issue of immigration. Use these resources as you form study groups, worship services, etc.

In my shoes: Pedro Gonzalez

DVD produced by Mennonite Central Committee (MCC)

Welcoming the Newcomer: Doing advocacy with immigrants packet, MCC

Immigration and Conscientious Objection packet, MCC

What the Church is Saying
MCC US Immigration Listening project report

Washington Memo (Spring 2009), MCC Washington office

Christians at the Border, a book by M. Daniel Carroll

Strangers in the Land, a six-week devotional guide on Immigration, the Church, and the Bible, Sojourners magazine

Loving Strangers as Ourselves: Biblical Reflections, a study guide from MCC

A Common Place, Jan/Feb 2009, MCC bimonthly publication

Notebook of resources and statements from MCC and Mennonite Church US.

This notebook contains statements, articles, brochures, suggestions of other resources, worship ideas, stories, and advocacy ideas to help individuals, small groups, or congregations sort through the immigration debate from a Christian perspective.

To have these resources sent to you to review, contact the conference office, 605-925-4463 or office@centralplainsmc.org.

MCC items can also be ordered from their store: www.mccstore.org. Some items above are available from the WDC resource library, 316-283-6300 or www.mennowdc.org.

Central Plains Mennonite Conference is an area conference of Mennonite Church USA.
www.centralplainsmc.org

*"For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, mighty
and awesome,
who is not partial and takes no bribe,
who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing."
Deut. 10:16-17*